Making It

Chloe Law

Chloe is a designer maker who combines materials and processes to test how they respond with each other, mainly with fine metals and ceramics.

Her collection of delicate ceramic bowls and hair pins are inspired by how delicate mushrooms can be; how beneficial and toxic each one can be. It can be depicted as between life and death, the cycle of life and how delicate life itself can be. She designed the pins to have a meaning of life and death, while the ceramic bowls are thin and delicate showing how life can be delicate too.

Please refer to price list available in exhibition Ceramics:£25-£30/ Fine Metals:£180-£450
