Energies de Phibows

Jullian Hoff

Videomusic

Énergies de Phibows explores sounds generated by the Phibow, a unique instrument created by Patrick Sébastien Coulombe.

This is a sonic textural piece exploiting the transitions of harmonics allowed by the instrument.

Artist Bio

My creations are divided between performative works (instruments & generative audiovisual) and fixed supports (acousmatic & videomusic). I am inspired by themes such as lyrical abstraction, the place of humans in front of technology, technoculture and posthumanism. My music has been awarded twice at the Canadian Electroacoustic Community's Jeu de Temps / Times Play Competition, at the Beijing Musicacoustica Competition and for the Luigi Russolo Award. I also collaborate with different artists on projects involving immersing visuals and live electronics
