D N panel piece - individual pieces - Quiet work

Samantha Robinson

Wall based panel hung for DN and 5 small wall pieces. If allowed I would like to have 5/7 porcelain vessels for the windowsill pieces with ceramics/metal detailing.

As an accomplished Designer Maker Samantha's specialism is mixed media ceramics. Her work demonstrates a subtle combination of ceramics, metals and textures to produce several collections of jewellery and homeware pieces.

Inspired by the often-overlooked detail within ordinary objects such as buttons, zips and screws, she creates a homage to the unseen using hand building techniques, stitch and embossing plus porcelain's pure qualities to achieve this.

Contact me directly 07834389654 £195.00 large piece and £45 for the smaller pieces, this will be confirmed when fully made.

Artist Bio

Alongside Samantha's freelance practice she works in education both as an adult tutor and technical instructor. She is eager to continue the production of her range of jewellery and interior pieces for retail outlets and seeks new opportunities for exhibitions and private commissions.
